My dear Muir:

I want by this letter to introduce to you my good friends Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Fries of 1716 La Loma Avenue, Berkeley, California.

They are Swedish-Americans, and I think you will find them very sympathetic. They are admirers of your writings and your work, but Mrs. Fries, like a good many nice people, has got the wrong twist in her brain in regard to Hetch Hetchy Valley. I rely on you to take it out. The Frieses have a mighty fine boy whom I call the Viking, who is greatly interested in natural history. You need in California all the lovers of nature you can breed or import, and so I hope you will be good to this nice boy. He may

Some day have to fight for Yosemite Valley
Sincerely yours,

John Muir, Esq.,
Martinez, California.
